

Welcome to the 5th edition of the Athens Short Film Festival!

After two years of our festival being held online, the Athens Short Film Festival team is more than excited to be back where it belongs; the cinema, with filmmakers and cinephiles coming together to celebrate independent filmmaking from around the world.

At ASFF's 5th edition, we had the pleasure to receive creative short form projects from more than 70 countries, evidence that short films are a palpable element of the film industry globally, carving the future of cinema.

In this year's screenings, we are proud to present the work of 13 talented filmmakers, with short films varying from dramas, to documentaries, animated shorts to comedies and music videos. So sit back, open your minds and get ready to explore new worlds with us!
